By Tom DeFrange

Once upon a time in a stable in a manger, now, bundled in a blanket be a new born King.
Mary and her Joseph keep Him out of danger now,
Baby King Jesus born in Bethlehem.

Refrain: Sing we now merrily, we thinkin' 'bout the story,
happy to remember 'bout the mighty plan.
Angels flyin' high cryin' "Glory! Glory! Glory!"
Baby Jesus He be born in Bethlehem.

Shepherds with their sheep keep watchin' by the fountain.
Come a thunder full of wonder in the sky.
Angels comin' down sound glory in the mountain.
"Go you see the baby. Sing a lullaby." Refrain

From a far land, star guided 'cross the desert sand,
there be mighty magi looking for the King.
Carryin' gifts to give the little baby, now.
Maybe He be happy to see what they bring. Refrain
