

Happy the Poor

Psalms 146

Refrain: Happy the poor, Happy the poor, happy the poor in spirit.
The kingdom of heaven is theirs. 2x

Lord, You keep faith with us forevermore and the oppressed your justice receive.
You give your food to the hungry ones.
Your daughters and your sons are freed. Refrain

And to the blind You give the eyes to see,
and You raise up those burdened with care.
The strangers have your protection strong.
Your love with us belongs to share. Refrain

The parentless and widows You sustain and wicked works you turn into clay.
Your reign on Zion will ever last and it will never pass away. Refrain
