

Let There Be Light

By Tom DeFrange

“Let there be light.” And it poured out of the nothingness of night.
“Let there be earth.” And it grew out of the light that gave it birth.
And by our hand, the mighty oceans rolled back from the land.
As it arose, we set the seed of everything that grows.

Refrain: Do you remember? We all were there, joined in the power that we still now share.
Try to remember, we did it too,
as we sprang into the light of me and you.

And from that Light, in the image of a Love and Power bright, we came to be, the manifested oneness that is we.
As Spirits bound, forgetful gods of God we fell so far.
He sent his Son, to remind us all of who we really are. Refrain

©2014 BY Tom DeFrange