

May My Tongue Be Silenced

Psalm 137: 1-6

Refrain: May my tongue be silenced if I ever forget You. 2x

By the streams of Babylon we sat and we wept
when we remembered You, O Zion.

On the Aspens of that land we hung up our harps
when we remembered you, O Zion. Refrain

And our captors asked of us the words of our songs and so they urged us to be joyous.

Saying, "Sing us the songs of Zion.

Won't you sing us the songs of Zion.

Come and sing us the songs of Zion!"

But how can we sing the songs of the Lord
in a foreign land? Refrain

If I should forget you, O Jerusalem,

then may my right hand be forgotten.

I will place you evermore ahead of my joy and you will never be forgotten. Refrain
