

Philippians 4

Phil 4:4-9

My beloved, rejoice in the Lord!
Again I say it. rejoice in the Lord.
When they see you as gentle and dear,
your gentleness tells them the Lord is near.

Don't you worry when troubles bear down.
Ask Jesus to help you; thank God for his Son.
When you're praying, your fears He'll release
You won't understand it; you'll be in Christ's peace.

Finally, brothers, whatever is true,
whatever has honor, whatever is just.
my beloved, whatever is pure,
whatever is decent, think on these things.

If you live thus, the way you have learned,
The way you've accepted and heard me say,
God will give you his perfect peace.
No matter what happens, He'll be there with you.

Copyright 2014 by Tim DeFrange