

The Crossing Place

John 3:1-17

Refrain: Born again and living in a world beyond our eyes, Seeing what believers see but others but surmised.
The crossing place from here to there, a step of faith away.

God so cherished the world He sent His Son,
That we all might be born anew.
Every birth a beginning once begun redefines who you thought was you. Refrain

And in Spirit we hear it like the wind.
Unseen power around us swirls.
Washed by water and fire, we're born again bringing light to a darkened world. Refrain

Joy and peace in unceasing melody is the song that the Spirit sings Hear it echoing through eternity, lifting us on celestial wings. Refrain copyright 2014 by Tom DeFrange