

Dive into the Water

Matthew 14:22-33

Dive into the water. There's no need to falter.
Each brother and daughter, He's there at your side,
to catch you and hold you lest currents enfold you,
and slowly embold you to battle the tide.

The water is frightening with thunder and lightening
and darkness is tightening its grip on your soul.
But looks are deceiving and if you're believing you'll soon be achieving the Spirit's control.

Refrain: Should you are brave enough to take now that leap of faith now you'll realize.
It's not about where you'll be landing
once you are standing with Jesus Christ.

You sat on the shore line just hoping for more time to make up your own mind, refusing to live.
But what it's about now is subject to doubt now
and times running out now and time won't forgive. Refrain

©2014 by Tom DeFrango