

Happy Are They Who Hope In the Lord

Refrain: Happy are they who hope in the Lord, who hope in the Lord, our God.

Happy the one who will follow not The wicked in all their ways, who sit not with the insolent, but delight in the Lord and obey. Refrain

And you shall be ever like a tree By running waters fed, yielding fruit with leaves of green that its branches never will shed. Refrain

So like the chaff will the wicked ones be driven by winds away; while the just will ever be at the Father's right hand to stay. Refrain
