

I'm Forgiven

Psalm 103

I'm forgiven, my sins forgotten.
They're as far as East is from the West.
I'm forgiven, my past forsaken,
looking forward with my eyes fixed on You.
How can I explain how You took away the shame,
forever in your debt, my first love?

It is finished. I live in freedom, by the favor of your love and faithfulness.
It is finished. Your joy completes me,
being filled with the fruits of righteousness.
Now I can depend that You will always be my friend.
Forever I will see You face to face.

My only love! My only life! My only strength!

I'm forgiven, my sins forgotten.
They're as far as East is from the West.
I'm forgiven, my past forsaken,
looking forward with my eyes fixed on You,
looking forward with my eyes fixed on You,
looking forward with my eyes fixed on You,
my first Love!