

Instruments of God's Power

1 Corinthians 4:18-5:1

It's all here before our eyes, the power to see where the angels fly and the vision of the mystery within our hands, the power to heal to further the plans of the kingdom that will come to be.

Refrain: We are the instruments of God's power.
Above adversity we can tower.
The eyes and the ears, the hands and the tears of God are we beyond our humanity.

There lies within our hearts the power to heal, to connect all the parts of the picture into one great whole that we can be, and find in the minds of our peoplehood signs of his wisdom deep within our souls. Refrain

Our real birthright lies, as sons and daughters of God we've a share of the treasure in our Father's home.
So claim your prize.
Let loneliness cease the power of peace without measure.
We are not alone. Refrain
