

Let Your Mercy Be

Psalm 33

Refrain: Let your mercy be, let your mercy be let your mercy be upon us.
Let your mercy be upon us, Lord,
as we place our trust in you.

Upright, upright is your word, O Lord,
and worthy to be trusted.
You love mercy and what is right.
With your kindness earth is filled. Refrain

And your eyes, O Lord our God, are on the people who fear You.
On those hearts that are full of hope for deliverance from death. Refrain

Now our souls wait upon the Lord who is our help and our comforter.
May your kindness be on us, Lord,
as we place our trust in You. Refrain
