

Show Me the Way

People try to tell me, they try to sell me on what they believe I'm lookin' for.
And so I take them and try to make them
a part of what lies beyond that door.

Oh but I'm no stranger to unknown danger.
I know that it's comin' so show me the way.
I see darkness comin'. My soul is runnin'
so somebody help me and show me the way!
Show me the way! Just show me the way!

Satan's attackin' and still I'm back into questions that I thought were no more.
Like, "Which way to heaven?" and
"Where does the truth lie?" and
"What is the life I'm lookin' for?"

Oh but I'm no stranger to unknown danger.
I know that it's comin' so show me the way.
I see darkness comin'. My soul is runnin'
so somebody help me and show me the way!
Show me the way! Just show me the way!

I try to latch on to freedom,
but they say I need money to ride.
I thought their friendship would please me,
but I know they're not really on my side.
Yes, I know they're not really on my side.

And then a friend who I didn't know I had showed me love when he took me to his book.
And then he shared that I shouldn't be scared
so I proceeded for I needed to take a look.

Well I read of my need in the one who pleaded,
who interceded and taught me to pray.
And then all my questions, they found their answers
in one called Jesus who showed me the way.
He is the way, the truth and the life.
He showed me the way! He showed me the way!
