

The Just Ones

Psalm 112

Refrain: (The Just Ones) the just ones
(they are a beacon) they are a beacon.
(The Just Ones) the just ones
(they are a light) they are a light.
(The Just Ones) the just ones
(they are a lantern) they're a lantern for the people who walk in the night.

The Lord's dawns through in the darkness as a light for the upright and just.
Well it is for the ones who are gracious,
who are fair in their dealings with others, someone you can trust. Refrain

They cannot be moved or influenced and respect is their only reward.
The opinion of others who slander do not give them concern for their hearts are held firm in the Lord. Refrain

Their hearts are steadfast in their courage.
They lavishly give to the poor.
And so in their love for their neighbor, they never will waver, revered shall they be evermore. Refrain
