

To Him You Must Cry

By Arlett White

If you've been mistreated, brought down so low.

Told you are nothing; that you must go.

If you've been stripped of dignity and love,
kicked out of doors, told we want no more.

There is a God who hears your cry,
will come to your aid. The price has been paid.
No matter how awful or ugly they say you are,
He'll fill you with his love. You are his star.

Refrain: You are God's choice, the apple of his eye.
divinely appointed. To Him you must cry. 2x

There is a God who hears your cry,
will come to your aid, the price has been paid.
No matter how awful or ugly they say you are.
He'll fill you with his love. You are his star.

Refrain

No matter how awful or ugly they say you are.
He'll fill you with his love. You are his star.

Refrain
