

Transfiguration

Matthew 17:1-9

I have seen a world of splendor springing from the night, watched the autumn fog surrender to the morning light.
Trees up on a hill stood watching black against the sky,
till the sunlight sent their colors flashing to my eyes.

Refrain: And the wonders of creation lie behind the things you see.
And a new transfiguration comes to those who hold the key,
that unlocks the hidden meanings of the parts that make the whole.
And you can hold the universe...in the corner of your soul.

I have seen my Lord and Master in the rising sun.
I have seen Him in the evening when the day is done.
And in times of solitude He calls me to his light
trailing streams of glory that surpasses human sight. Refrain:

Transfiguration shine your light on me.
New resurrection set my spirit free.

I have heard the Lord in thunder roll across the sky.
Touch me in the simple beauty of a butterfly.
And if you're searching for your Maker, you needn't look too far.
His power lies within your heart. He's everywhere you are. Refrain:

Transfiguration shine your light on me.
New resurrection set my spirit free. 2x
