

We Are the Face of God

Matthew 25:34-46

We wait upon the God of love to reach down from the clouds above and intercede on our behalf to help the ones in need.

But God has no hands but our own to lift the burdens of the weak.
He has no voice but ours to raise to speak the words of hope and praise that people need to hear. We bring his mercy here.

We run to tell the people of the Father's great and steadfast love, and how He cares about their plight and his amazing grace.

But it is He who waits for us to walk among the populous and in his name our love to show that all the world might come to know that though He is unseen, we're here to intervene!

We are God's answer to our prayers. The power of love that we all share is all the power that we need to bring his kingdom here.

He counts on us to intercede, to touch the hearts and fill the need of all who search for truth and love and seek to know the meanings of.
Here on this earthly sod we are the face of God!

©2014 by Tom DeFrange