

Welcome Home

Luke 15

O traveler come join us. Come in out of the cold.
The quest beyond the emptiness is sure to take its toll.
And we your fellow seekers have now found a place of rest.
Unworthy as we are we have been blessed.

Refrain: Welcome home! Welcome home! There's always room for more.
We know the roads you've traveled down. We've traveled them before.
You're not the first arrival and you will not be the last.
We're prodigals returning from our past.

We found a place of refuge within our Father's home,
a place with peace abundant, where we are not alone.
And if you've brought a burden we will carry it with you.
Together we will help you see it through. Refrain

This house is filled with prodigals who've gathered in this place.
We wandered from our Father and troubles we have faced.
But He was there besides us as we struggled with our fear.
And He's the one who finally brought us here. Refrain

©2014 by Tom DeFrange