

Look Away

Matthew 24

I have a feeling in my heart these days
and the feeling won't go away.
Well, you can talk about your troubles
but it says the same.
He is saying to you, "Look away!"

Beneath the darkness and the gloom of the day,
yes, the Spirit is still shining in our hearts.
And the Spirit keeps repeating
He is coming soon and He wants us to be set apart.

Refrain: So look away to Jesus. Look away! Look away!
For the world must face the music soon
and we mustn't be singing their tune.
No we mustn't be singing their tune.

So if you hunger and your heart is cold
and you can't find peace in this world, well, you won't move one step closer
if you're playing games.
He is saying to you, "Look away!"

Refrain

I have a feeling in my heart these days
and the feeling won't go away.
Well, you can talk about your troubles
but it says the same
He is saying to you, "Look away!"

He is saying to you, "Look away!"
He is coming back soon. Look away!
He is saying to you, "Look away!"
Look away! Look Away!
