

As He Reigns

As my trembling hand takes the Lord's through the shadows
I know He leads to the morning light as He reigns.
Through shifting sands of time I follow.
Faith leads me home where He pleads me to come as He reigns.

Refrain: The highest wall won't keep him away.
And if I call his name and pray
no enemy over me will hold sway because I know...
Lord, your love has claimed me for yourself
and I need no one else.
Yes, I need no one else.

Through sorrow's storms when life's uncertain
I still endure unto the end for He reigns.
When heaven's doors seemed closed for certain
I soon will soar to Jesus's side for He reigns.
