

I Am Here

For the times when troubles tower and pressures start to spin you.
Fix your eyes upon a flower and listen to what's in you.

Refrain: Come now take my hand and put aside your fear.
For all the love that's in you,
I am here.

To the earth I sent my Light to dwell among your sorrow.
Left a candle in the night to shine into tomorrow. Refrain

In the cry of an eagle, in the call of the mighty whale
in the rolling clouds of thunder 'cross the sky, beyond the place where sunbeams sleep and within the atom small,
We move within the silence you and I.

You can never be alone in spite of what you're seeing, for I move and make my home.
in the center of your being. Refrain
