

A Mother's Day Song

If you asked the Lord today He would surely tell, how as a child He came to see what a mother's love can be, and Mary loved him tenderly and well.

Lord, your mother must have been not unlike our own, packing lunches making beds, all the pets that must be feed, storybooks so gently read and shown.

But the thing we most regret is that sometimes we forget mothers too need tenderness and care.

Jesus see the love we share in this special way.
For all mothers everywhere
who with their children this day share, keep them in your loving care, we pray.

But the thing we most regret
is that sometimes we forget
mothers too need tenderness and care.

Jesus see the love we share
in this special way.
For all mothers everywhere
who with their children this day share,
keep them in your loving care, we pray.
