

And the Lord Makes Three

Sung to the tune "And a Dog Named Blue"

Well you tell me that you're at an end
And you need to find a place again where you can rest. It's best to stop and look where you're goin'.
Alone with who you are You can't see beyond yourself too far.
And if you don't look back
You lose track of where you're growin'.

Refrain: You and me and the Lord makes three And together we can do no wrong.
You and me and the Lord makes three,
A combination that'll keep us strong!

There are mountains and valleys low, mighty rivers we must cross and so the road of life can be rocky for the pilgrim's way.
But whether we succeed or fail, eventually we'll blaze a trail.
With God on our side as our guide we'll be OK. Refrain

Well the good book holds the key,
Says that anywhere where two or three
Are gathered together, He is in our midst again.
When we're callin' on his name in prayer, taken time to find the time to share through the darkest night He'll be a light to a world in pain. Refrain

©2016 by Tom DeFrange