

Give God What He's Due

(Sung to the tune of "At the Hop")

Well the Pharisees came to play a little game. They had a plot!
"Jesus tell us the facts, do we gotta pay a tax, or not?"
But the teacher was wise to the guys tryin' to put him on the spot.

Refrain: He told them, "Give God what He's due!
You give God what He's due! You give God what He's due!
You give God what He's due!
Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and give God what He's due!"

And he held up some money, honey, "Who's face do you see?"
Well the Pharisees blinked tried to think about who this could be.
"It's the crowd pleaser Caesar, the geezer with the personality!"

Refrain

For what the Father gives, there's no way we're gonna pay Him back.
But if we give Him our belief, at least we're on a righteous track!
And if we falter at the altar, He'll cut us all a little slack!

He's the Source of the force a tower of power and might!
He's the keeper of the beeper that'll tell you if you're wrong or right!
And if you're up against the wall you can call Him any day or night.
