

Jesus is Comin' 'Round

Got a Friend who at any time might call.
We can sit together for an hour or two and not need to talk at all.
Whether I'm workin' or simply passin' time.
He rolls up his sleeves and joins right in,
there beside me through thick or thin.
Whenever I need Him, I don't even have to call,
not at all.

Refrain: Jesus is comin' 'round.
Been here lots of times before.
No need to take the good china down.
No need to polish the floor.
Whatever I'm wearin' will be just fine.
I know his heart and He knows mine.
Nobody better to pass the time with.
2nd time (Eat some bread and drink some wine with)
Jesus is comin' 'round.

And I'll be happy to share my friend with you.
He'll drop in to see you any time at all
To help you with the things you do.
No interdictions are needed . It's alright.
When you hear Him knockin' just open the door.
If you're out of lovin'
He'll bring more,
more than you could ever use
in an eternal life. Refrain
