

Justice Shall Flourish

Psalm 72

Refrain: Justice shall flourish in his time

And fullness of peace shall forever increase.
O God of Heaven, enthrone now the King's Son that He might govern all your afflicted ones with a judgment wise before your eyes. Refrain

And so in his days shall it flower and raise up a peace profound, till the moon is no more.
He rules from the ocean's shore to the river's end.
Giving justice birth to the ends of the earth. Refrain

The cries of the poor He will never ignore.
The afflicted ones who are lost and forsaken
He will awaken to his eternal peace.
And the poor and low, his salvation will know. Refrain

Forever his name like the sun will remain in the heav'ns. The tribes of the earth shall all bless Him, ever confess Him Lord, and his joy proclaim.
So we yearn as well for Emmanuel.
