

Lord, Every Nation on Earth II

Psalm 72

Refrain: Lord, every nation on earth will adore You.

O God, with your justice endow now the king,
and with your justice, the son of the king;
so with justice your people he'll govern
and with judgement your afflicted ones.

Justice in his day shall flower and profound peace till the moon be no more.
His rule will reach from sea to sea
From the rivers to the ends of the earth it shall be.

The kings of Tarshish and the isles shall bring gifts.
The kings of Arabia and Seba shall too.
All kings to Him their homage shall pay.
All nations shall serve Him for endless days.

He shall rescue the poor who cry to him still,
and help the afflicted when no one else will.
He shall have pity on the lowly and poor and their very lives He will save and restore.
