

Step Out On the Sea

Matthew 14:22-33

In the stormy weather of our lives when clouds are closing in,
all alone and on our own our world begins to spin.

Look out on the sea, walking fearlessly,
hear the Master calling you.

Step out on the sea!

Step out on the sea!

Who would step into the great abyss and face uncertainty?
Who would brave the crashing waves and step on to the sea?

He is here with us. Gather up your trust.

He will catch you lest you fall.

Step out on the sea!

Step out on the sea!

We can rest secure within the arms of our redeeming King.

We are shielded from the storm, his power lies within.

In his promise sure we can rest secure.

You will live eternally.

Step out on the sea!

Step out on the sea!

©2014 by Tom DeFrange

