

Seek the Kingdom First

Bob and Debbie Carothers

Refrain: Seek the kingdom first.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.
Tell me what is the pearl of eternal life worth?
There is nothing more important on earth.
So seek the kingdom first.

Beware of covetous ways, the desires of your senses.
For a man's life does not consist of the things that he possesses. No.
Lay up treasures in heaven that never fade or rust.
Thieves cannot break in and steal God's love for us.

Refrain:

There once was a man who was rich.
His goods were far increased.
All of his barns were full and all his meals were feasts.
And he said to himself "My wealth is so vast it should last a long long time."
But little did he know that very night
he would leave it all behind.

"Vanity, of vanities!" cried the preacher.
He had everything this world could offer.
He did everything a man can do.
And still in all his great abundance
he found nothing new.

Refrain:
