

CLOSE YOUR EYES LET A DREAM IN

Marilyn and Denis DeFrange

I like to plan it out.
Always do the practical.
I always do without and choose the old reliable.

Be the same every day.
Be a cog in the wheel of the old routine.
It's safer that way when you don't make a fuss,
Don't make a scene.

That wish, that I'm clinging to,
stays just out of reach.
All this time it took to prove
the thing I want so much begins in me.

Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.
Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.

I keep emotions tame.
Don't want to get too wound up.
Just want to stay the same,
Isn't it hard enough?
I'm behaving myself on the way to a normal life
It's so much easier, when there's no surprises.

That wish, that I'm clinging to,
stays just out of reach.
All this time it took to prove
the thing I want so much begins in me.

Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.
Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.

Oh, let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.
Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.

Close your eyes and dream tonight, close your eyes and dream tonight.
Close your eyes, dream tonight. Don't you know it's gonna be alright.

Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.
Let a dream, let a dream, let a dream in.
