

YOU CHOSE ME

Marilyn DeFrange

Our first night together, you made me laugh until I cried.
These emotions that I keep to myself, I've been hiding a very long time, until...

You chose me. I can hardly believe it's true.
You chose me. And forever I choose you.

Our first night together, you made me feel so young again.
Brought me back to a part of myself, and it felt like a gift from a friend.

You chose me. I can hardly believe it's true.
You chose me. And forever I choose you.

I'm ready to walk together. I'm ready to say, "I do."

You chose me. And forever I choose you.
And forever I choose you.
